Description

Rare and splendid Karabagh, in wool on hand-knotted wool measuring 112 cm x 240 cm. A great gaiety emerges from this carpet, due to the liveliness of the colors. The red field is covered with stylized patterns leaving no room for emptiness. The bangs are long, braided, and clean. Carpets prior to 1925 are defined in five groups: Kazakh, Karabakh or Sjirvan, Kuba, and Daghestani. Carpets from the Karabakh region often have soft patterns and are reminiscent of Persian rugs. Apart from this classification, there are also Gandja, Silé, and Verni rugs. These carpets are distinguished by their very varied and imaginative geometric patterns. We sometimes find, in stylized form, figures of animals or geometric and architectural motifs. This rug has been professionally and environmentally
