Furniture with two doors in Deco style, plated in Tanganika Walnut and made in France in the first half of the 1900s. By opening the doors, closed by rod lock with original key, inside we find four sliding drawers used as cutlery trays with purple velvet upholstery and accommodation for a complete cutlery set. The pedestal support has geometric shapes typical of the Deco. The cabinet can be used for other functions by removing the drawer lining. The internal measure of each compartment is 45 cm in length, 30 cm wide and 6.5 cm deep. In good condition, on request we can provide a
