Description

It is an important lacquered casket, of typical Marche manufacture, with faux marble lacquering, floral decorations and masks on the sides. The structure is very sober in the forms, but to give movement to the piece of furniture there is the displaced molding which brings back the dating of the piece to the Baroque period. Period: '600 complete Lacquered poplar wood.
Glass and crystal shelves have been added to the showcase, so it can now be used as a showcase.
