Description

Charming pair of low chairs covered with a pastel yellow fabric decorated with golden and intertwined arabesques. These recently refurbished seats have a comfortable traditional seat in perfect condition made of straps, springs and horsehair. Each has a slightly reversed backrest with butt towards the rear. They rest on the front with two tapered feet and at the back with two outward arched feet in black varnish. With their luminous color, these small Napoleon III low chairs will delight people looking for elegance and refinement.
