Born March 28, 1843 in Saint-Quentin and died October 17, 1926 in Paris, Hippolyte Berteaux was a French painter, known for his murals and portraits. Son of a sculptor, Hippolyte Berteaux learned to paint at the Paris School of Fine Arts in the workshops of Hippolyte Flandrin, Léon Cogniet and Paul Baudry. From 1872 to 1875, he was painter to the sultan in Istanbul. He then moved to Nantes where he practiced portraiture and
