Carpentier, Portrait Of A Little Girl Holding An Apple

800 EUR

Signature : E. Carpnetier

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Pastel

Width : 44 cm (cadre 54 cm)

Height : 53 cm (cadre 64 cm)

Description

E. Carpentier (active in the 19th century)
Portrait of a little girl holding an apple Pastel on paper laminated on cardboard,
Signed and dated lower left "E. Carpentier 1858"
H 53 cm - W 44 cm Gilt wood frame H 64 cm - W 54 cm

Pastel portrait of a little girl holding an apple in her hands. Dressed in a blouse in light tones with thin blue stripes and topped with a black lace cap, the artist gently depicts this child with a gaze full of benevolence and tenderness.
The quality of the drawing gives the eyes and facial expression a touching realism. The pastel is signed lower left E.Carpentier and dated 1858, it is in good condition, a trace of moisture on the right edge.

Dealer

Galerie Charles Vatinel

Old masters from the 18th to the 19th century

Tel : 06 16 94 45 59

Falaise 14700