Description

Very large and very beautiful painting representing the cloister of St Emilion dated 1901 on the back on the canvas, here representation of the building under the snow and signed by Kermel, cleaning and small usual restorations, very beautiful rendering made by the painter with a very beautiful effect of light and depth! Remarkable pictorial technique with a beautiful palette of colors and especially the snowy coat (the most difficult for a painter to achieve) original golden frame, all in its own juice! Format of 1.65m in length by 1.20m in height with and 1.45x98cm without. Very decorative and visually stunning! Do not miss !!
