Description

Pair of Cuban Mahogany Armchairs from the Directoire / Restoration period. The backrests, reversed, and the seats, wide and in good condition, are covered with a plain yellow velvet fabric with Galon finishes. The clean-lined armrests are simply molded at the lower ends in the form of Baluster vases. The feet, always in the sobriety, are slightly curved at the front and "swords" at the back.

Period: End of the 18th century / Beginning of the 19th century

Perfect condition after restoration in our workshop. Wax finish only.
