Description

Pair of large half columns with Ionic capitals in terracotta patinated cement stone from the beginning of the 20th century. They adorned the facade of a beautiful bourgeois house. They are in one piece for the lower part and the fluted column. The capital comes to rest on it. These columns have spent several years disassembled in a garden, presence of mosses and lichens. Period first half of the 20th century. Very heavy objects, no delivery possible by carrier, only by me (to be agreed together) or to be picked up at my warehouse in the southern zone of Limoges, 1 km from the A20 motorway.
