Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Oil painting on wood

Description

Large and stunning oil on wood pannels by the american painter Edgar Piers Cameron. Signed and dedicatded to "M. et Mme Le Gloanec" in the tope left corner.

It is most certain that this painting was a gift to the owners of the Gloanec Pension where most artists stayed when in Pont-Aven (such as Gauguin for exemple). Cameron went to France in 1884-1886, this most probably at that time that the gift was given.

75 cm x 85 cm avec cadre, 68 cm x 58 cm sans, à vue.

Sculpted wooden frame (chestnut).

In very-very good conditions
