Description

Superb and elegant pair of Louis XIV period chairs in walnut. They rest on a turned base with balusters with an H-shaped crotch. On the front there is a turned reinforcement crosspiece under the seat which gives the whole a great elegance and increased solidity. The entire seat and backrest is covered with a striped fabric on a studded light blue background and completely redone. good quality work in excellent condition. Noted very slight stains (nails) on the seat visible in the last photo.
