

Pendulum Under Globe With Allegorical Decor, France Empire Period

1 680 EUR

Signature : Gillion à Paris maître horloger

Period : 19th century

Condition : Parfait état

Width : pendule 28.5 cm

Height : 38.2 cm

Description

Pretty gilt bronze clock with allegorical decoration, Empire period, this clock preserved under its blown glass globe and its original mahogany veneer base has been able to preserve itself from the vagaries of time, the gilding has not suffered any damage and is completely original, the movement is also functional. French work circa 1805. Note: Original key & pendulum. A trimming cord forms the joint between the mahogany base and the globe. A beautiful clock in more than perfect condition! Height of base and globe together 53 cm Width of veneer base 35.8 cm Depth of veneer base 18.8 cm

Dealer

Beauregard Antiquités

Achats - Ventes, Mobiliers, Objets D'arts

Tel : 0677726662

Mobile : 06.08.68.98.00

Fougères 35300