

Wrought Iron Gate 18th Jean Lamour Nancy For Staircase

850 EUR

Signature : Jean Lamour (attribué à)

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état d'usage

Material : Wrought iron

Description

Pretty wrought iron gate constituting a stair railing, from the 18th century. Attributed to Jean Lamour, ironworker who made the gates of Place Stanislas in Nancy. Similar grilles are still in place in Nancy, notably in former private mansions such as the one housing Sciences Po. Good condition, some lacks in particular of golden acanthus leaves. For dimensions, refer to the plan in the main photo.
