Description

Coffee table or pedestal table with marquetry work in ash, walnut, boulot and oval lemon tree resting on four tapered sheath legs connected by a central tray. A frieze drawer with storage slide. A complete restoration has been carried out with a buffer varnish. Stamp on the central plate to decipher (I did some research, but found nothing). Work probably Austrian Biedermeier from the middle of the 19th century The work of the marquetry is of very high quality and the proportions very harmonious, a real marvel
