Description

Oil on canvas representing cows grazing peacefully near a water point in the middle of a field in a spring atmosphere. Our painting is signed lower left Gaston Corbier, painter born in Sainte in 1869 and died in 1945, renowned in particular for his seascapes and bouquets of flowers. This painting with bright and shimmering colors has undergone a very small old restoration. (see last photo) It is presented in a magnificent old frame in wood and gilded stucco in the Louis XV style, very richly carved and molded. This frame has a key assembly, it has a few rare small lacks without gravity (see last photos) Shipping costs for metropolitan France 40 euros, other destinations contact us. Canvas dimensions only: 33cm x 24cm
