2 600 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Parfait état

Diameter : 65 cm

Height : 74 cm

Description

Elegant round table topped with Carrara marble characterized by its whiteness and discreet gray veining. It is bordered by a fine openwork brass gallery with overhangs. Below, we discover a belt encrusted with brass nets accompanied by a half-round applique. This belt has a drawer and a zipper lined with green leather with cold stamp and opening with a bowl button. This piece of furniture rests on four legs turned slightly in spindle inlaid with 5 grooves dressed in brass. In the upper part, each foot has a striated plate and a brass shoe in the lower part. Refined and timeless, this Louis XVI bouillotte table will charm you with its geometric lines and the luminosity of its marble.
