Description

Superb liquor cabinet in Rio rosewood veneer inlaid with nets and lemon tree scrolls. The front and top of this Rio rosewood box are inlaid with three lemon tree fillets with Greek angles. On the lid we notice initials. The facade is beautifully inlaid with lemon tree motifs composed of rosettes, flowers, foliage and foliage. The lid opens with an original brass hook lock with two clasps, accompanied by its key in working order. Upon opening, we discover four decanters and eight liqueur glasses instead of twelve. Of great elegance, this liqueur cellar in the style of Charles X, will delight lovers of refined objects.
