Description

Charming Flemish painting from the end of the 19th century representing a blacksmith working near the hearth.

the composition is very pleasant, the blacksmith working in an interior lit only by the fire of the fireplace, a sword resting on the side. the light rendered is very interesting and the colors bright.

a Flemish school, a scene of life. painted on a nice oak panel with a label on the back "eingendom EJKriens" for Eleonara Johanna Kriens.

with traces of an old collectible wax seal.

a charming and very luminous Flemish painting.

a gloss varnish was applied long ago.

dimensions: 18.3 cm by 14.6 cm
