Description

Raymond Dierickx (1904-1978) "The fog", pastel 50 X 70 cm mounted under neutral pH mat 60 X 80 cm. I used to explain to my granddaughters that fog is a cloud that can't fly... comes back, the shovel on his shoulder in front of the church. It was a real discovery for us that this beautiful Belgian artist! Even found in sheets and dusted with dust, these drawings, once prepared and framed, reveal all the talent of Dierickx, close to artists such as Nicolas Eeckmann, Fritz Van den Berghe, Constant Permeke or other expressionists in a typically Flemish style such as Anto Carte, representing Festivals, processions, fairs in the great tradition of Flemish painters dating back to the 17th century with the Brughels, but treated in a very modern way. Other facets of his work show us his projects for frescoes or large
