Description

Beautiful portrait attributed to Jacques Francois Courtin (Sens 1672-Paris 1752) of a man of the Louis XV period around 1730, very elegantly dressed and dressed.

Its headdress is adorned with rich multicolored feathers with tips held by a dominant diamond brooch, around the fine face, an elegant wig falling down with lightness on both sides, He wears a rich cloth-necked jacket half-opened on a thin waistcoat with wide sides, revealing his white shirt with wavy lace.

His jacket is held ajar by a chain between two buttons of the same tone.

In its golden frame retouched in places; very old oiling.
