Description

Tea table from the art nouveau period in mahogany and brass fillet. It rests on four sheathed feet, raised on nets (Height: 77cm). The lower part has four removable shelves, framed and molded, also raised on brass fillets (Long: 103.50cm, Depth: 83cm). The glass top is embedded in the gallery, it marries perfectly the grip of hands. This piece of furniture was used by governesses to serve and present to guests. The contrast of the materials and the delicacy of the work offer a beautiful functionality. Possible delivery not included in the price.
