Description

Louis XV period corner cupboard in solid walnut. the workmanship of the curved and fretted doors is sumptuous. the marquetry is inlaid with precision, includes: A decoration is foliated with in its center a palmette (on the two crosspieces). Doors are decorated with flowers on each corner of the top. The uprights are diamond-shaped at the level of the curved feet and in the upper part of the frame. The molded framed set further refines the whole. The molded Carrara marble with double beaks from Corbin is original. The bottoms are mounted with original wrought iron nails, as is the interior rack. Possible delivery not included in the price.
