Description

We are delighted to present this exquisite pair of Empire style vases, a truly magnificent testament to the opulence and refined artistry of the early 19th century. These vases are a harmonious blend of luxurious materials: amber-colored cut crystal and 24-carat gold-plated chiseled brass, which together create a captivating display of light and form.Each vase is a sculptural marvel, richly decorated with two swans and two eagles. These powerful and elegant motifs are emblematic of the Empire style, directly drawing inspiration from classical antiquity and the imperial symbolism favored by Napoleon Bonaparte. Swans, often associated with grace and mythological figures, and eagles, representing strength, power, and imperial might, are rendered with exceptional detail in the chiseled gilt
