Description

Brooch in the shape of an insect, the lower body is represented by a baroque pearl, the top and the head are paved with rose-cut diamonds. The eyes are rubies, the four openwork wings are adorned with rose-cut diamonds, occasionally with rubies and sapphires. The hanging system is a pin with safety hook. The four movable wings are hinged at the base. Period: 20th century Main material: yellow gold, 585 thousandths, 14 carats, shell hallmark. Proportions: Width: 9 cm, height: 3.2 cm, thickness: approximately 10.2 mm. Net weight: 21.9g approx. Antique jewelry - Work from the 1950s. Our opinion: An original bestiary brooch with wings that follow all the movements of the body.
