Description

Iranian rug from the Arak region, kurk* wool, cotton warp and weft, 1970-80. Very good state.

Academic sarouk comprising a multitude of refined floral motifs, scrolls and botehs.

Note, a small restoration in an angle (see photo).

* Kurk wool: fine lamb's wool taken by combing.

Boteh: Ancient pattern with different meanings. It can represent the transformation of Zoroaster into cypresses, symbol of eternity, but also into a drop of water, a palm, a tree. The term boteh means "flowering bush" in Persian. There is a similarity with yin and yang.
