Paris. Rejecting any form of abstract art and impressionist, Buffet plunges into the big black lines and bright colors of expressionism composing as well as characters figures, clowns, animals, nudes, landscapes, interiors, still lifes, flowers and religious paintings. He paints all around the world. He was particularly devoted to Japan, where a museum is entirely dedicated to him, so much so that his own ashes have been scattered there. His important production continues to make him an active artist and present in our imagination despite his death. Museums: Clermont-Ferrand, Higashino, Saint-Rémy-de-Provence, Vatican. Exhibitions: New York, Chicago, Palm Beach (Florida), Montreal, Vancouver, Tokyo, Osaka, Johannesburg, London, Amsterdam, Brussels, Berlin, Warsaw, Basel, Zurich, Geneva, Rome, Venice, Milan, Madrid, Paris, Lyon, Toulon, etc. violondingres.fr
