Description

Exceptional and huge theatrical fresco composed of 14 strips with a height of approximately 4.20 by 1.10 wide or grossomodo. 15.50 x 4.20m. Incredible ! Probably a theatrical decor on the theme of the death and rebellions of the people of President Jean Étienne Duranti born in Toulouse around 1534 and died in 1589 assassinated. He was the president of the parliament of Toulouse from 1581a1589. Named by Henri III in 1581. The arms of his family are azure with a silver tower surmounted by a golden sun. And the motto: always faithful! Member of the floral games in the parliament of Toulouse in 1581. Here very beautiful representation, superbly brushed, very fresh and lively colors thanks to its conservation in rolled strips and stored in a healthy room and without humidity at the owner of the castle! Having probably served as the setting for a theater with a play played on Duranti or a special order for the decoration of a large medieval-themed residence? Very nice pictorial technique. From the 50s. 60 . Very difficult to photograph given the importance of this fresco, in any case magnificent!! In very good condition without any traces of humidity or other! Do not miss it !! Notice to decorators, theaters, and any other amateur! Exceptional and superb at the same time!!
