Description

Exceptional chest of drawers from the Louis XIV - Regency period. Rio rosewood marquetry. The top, very rare, is inlaid with a large diamond motif with, in the centre, a sand rose in precious wood. Entourage of a bronze mold. Opening with three drawers mounted on oak and fir. The bronzes are original, mascarons of men's heads for the keyholes and the falls, wreaths for the drooping handles, shells for the bronzes of the feet and the apron. Some small old restorations. Varnished with a buffer by our workshop. Delivery possible, do not hesitate to contact us.
