Description

We are delighted to present this magnificent pair of pedestal supports, a stunning tribute to the lavish aesthetics of the late 19th-century French decorative arts, created in the distinguished style of the famed Parisian ébéniste François Linke. These exceptional pieces embody the opulence and meticulous craftsmanship characteristic of the period. Exceptional Materials and Meticulous Craftsmanship: Each pedestal is entirely veneered in fine malachite, a luxurious green gemstone renowned for its rich veining and deep color variations. This vibrant natural material provides a striking backdrop for the elaborate gilt bronze mounts. The structure is further adorned with elaborately chiseled bronze mounts, richly gilded with 24-carat gold, creating a spectacular contrast and an undeniable aura of opulence. Refined
