Description

Pair of Orientalist paintings (oils on canvas panels) by Matteo Olivero, Italian painter. Signed lower right for one, lower left for the second. Good condition, cleaning required. Lacquered wooden frames. Dimensions without frame: 40 X 20 cm. Frame dimensions: 46 X 26 cm. Matteo Olivero (June 15, 1879 - April 28, 1932) was an Italian painter, known for his technique of reproducing the reflections of sunlight without physically mixing the color pigments. He is also considered one of the main painters of Italian Divisionism. During his life, he participated in several exhibitions across Europe and began a collaboration with "Les tendances nouvelles", a Parisian art magazine. Fatherless since childhood, he was very close to his mother Lucia Rosano. The latter's loss in 1930 plunged
