Description

Small Limoges porcelain vase decorated with a beautiful floral motif in shades of blue. It is embellished with a gold edging around the collar and base. Nice work from the second quarter of the 20th century, this charming vase comes from the Michelaud and Dupuy workshops located at 28 rue Saint Surin in Limoges. It bears, under its base, the "Pallas" stamp registered in 1926. This factory will file for bankruptcy in 1950 after being sold to the bar of the court and will subsequently be demolished. Shipping and protection costs 12 euros in metropolitan France, other destinations contact us.
