Bronze Sculpture By Carl Milles 1875-1955 Fight For Life

5 850 EUR

Signature : Carl Milles
Period : 20th century
Condition : Parfait état
Material : Bronze
Length : 39,5 cm
Width : 26 cm
Height : 19,5 cm

Description

Bronze with brown patina It represents three characters who fight for life Carl Milles is a Swedish sculptor who worked in the workshop of Auguste Rodin in Paris Dimensions: Length 39.5 cm / Width 26 cm / Height 19.5 cm I am at your disposal for any further information Delivery by registered transport with insurance 60 euros for France He was born as Carl Wilhelm Emil Andersson, son of Lieutenant August Emil Sebastian "Mille" Andersson (1843-1910) and his wife Walborg Alfhild Maria Tisell (1846-1879), at Lagga outside Uppsala in 1875.[1][2] In 1897 he made what he thought was a temporary stop in Paris en route to Chile, where he was to lead a gymnastics school. However, he remained in Paris, where he studied art, worked in Auguste Rodin's studio, and slowly gained recognition as a

Dealer

Antiquités Nathalie Pourrier
Antiquaire Généraliste
Mobile : 06 07 76 25 26

Arras 62 000

sculptor.