Description

A family of gazelles (?) in glazed earthenware. The sculpture is in the art deco style with characteristic traits of synthetism and decorative form. To enrich the effect, it has been finished with a strong green glaze. Art Deco, France, designed by Charles Lemanceau for the Faïencerie de Lunéville-Saint-Clément, 1920s/30s. Charles Lemanceau (1905-1980) was a French sculptor who graduated from the National School of Decorative Arts in Paris in 1923. He participated in the Salon d'Automne of 1925, followed by many other exhibitions. He made monumental sculptures in stone and also designed many ceramic figures, the best known of which are those representing animals and executed in the art deco style. Height 44 cm, length 57 cm, width 14.5 cm. Condition as seen
