Description

Beautiful and elegant Louis XVI console in carved, painted and gilded wood, topped with gray marble. This rectangular console rests on 4 sheathed knockout legs with relief sculptures enhanced with gold paint. At the top of the feet, we find a drooping garland on each side. The crosspiece on the front has a central floral motif accompanied by leaves with flowers at the corners. A baguette frame on all sides of the band highlights all the ornaments. This refined console has a magnificent marble nuanced with gray and white. We find a flat and a groove around it. Graceful and decorative, this Louis XVI console will charm you with its carvings and finesse.
