Description

Very beautiful and interesting painting representing a woman and a monk. Oil on canvas mounted on wooden panels. In very good condition, this painting has been restored. Later Louis XVI style frame. The young woman holding a ball of wool, caressing the beard of the monk, this one leaning on a cane, holding a cord with his right hand. An atypical scene to say the least. Charming finely executed painting. Beautifully crafted work from the end of the 18th century. Weight: 444 g. Total dimensions: Length: 32.3 cm, Width: 26.3 cm. Table alone: Length: 27.5 cm, width: 21 cm.
