Description

Robert Breitwieser (1899-1975) (Attributed to) French School 1926/27: "Recto-verso expressionist landscape", oil on strong paper 47 X 63 cm, painted on the back of a watercolor "A valley", mounted in a frame simple presentation 57 X 72 cm. Watercolor side foxing. Thanks to Maurice Mielniczuk from the famous Marek and sons gallery for his award! I was however sure to know this pictorial writing... When I acquired it, almost 20 years ago, I thought I would find something right away. The ace ! Even if this powerful work is very "Ecole de Paris", I couldn't put a name to it. And yet, what power in this oil! And the Cezanne side of watercolor also makes it very attractive. I am delivering this painting to you as long as I can still go up to my attic where I have set up my "ripener", namely a kind of painting library where I stored quality works, but with an illegible signature, even anonymous in waiting for serendipity to make me come across his brother in a catalogue, a book or an exhibition, thus allowing me to identify them... Oh! It still happens to me three or four times a year, sometimes on works acquired 30 years earlier, sometimes the previous month. If an Internet user has a lead, I thank him in advance and let him know that it is better to deal with a tall skinny man than a fat dwarf!
