Gustavian Mora Clock 1831 Sweden

Description

I present to you this quite rare Swedish clock dated 1831. It belongs to the movement: "Kurbits folk art". We are far from the Swedish scam that appeared in the last third of the 20th century...and having invaded young French families. However it was functioning when it was relegated. Things to check, but the essential is there. pretty period polychromy and original movement.
