Description

Napoleon III cabinet with 19th century plates, circa 1860, Trinket!!! A cabinet with wavy sides and cut front and front corners, closed by a single leaf, supported by console legs. Everything is plated, stained black, polished on the so-called French Passe-partout, decorated with inlays of brass strands, additionally adorned with gilded bronzes. On the door leaf is a medallion with a satyr woman and a satyr child on a goat. On the upper band, an oval medallion with playing children is framed by a profiled brass band and framed by triangular fields in the corners. The front corners are decorated with rosettes at the top and bottom, as well as caryatids at the top. Two shelves inside; This piece of furniture is adorned with "Bulowska marketing", a decorative technique popularized and perfected by the
