Description

The half-moon pendant is an elegant and modern accessory. The rose and black gold provides an interesting contrast to the design, adding a touch of originality and sophistication to the piece.

18-karat gold is a high-quality material, consisting of 75% pure gold, blended with other metals to improve its strength. The rose and black gold is achieved through a surface treatment, giving the pendant a unique look. With a total weight of 9 grams, the pendant and chain are medium in size, making them comfortable to wear while still providing a significant visual presence when worn. This rose and black gold half-moon pendant with chain is an elegant and contemporary piece of jewelry, perfect for complementing your everyday outfits or adding a touch of style to special occasions. It is also a
