

"the Journey To Canossa" Attr. To Domenico Roberti 1642-1707. Hst

9 000 EUR

Signature : Attr. Domenico Roberti , 1642-1707 ec. Italienne

Period : 17th century

Condition : Bon état, à nettoyer

Material : Oil painting

Length : 151cm

Height : 99cm

Description

"The penance of Emperor Heinrich IV to Pope Gregory VI,I in 1077. This large scene represents the Emperor kneeling, asking the Pope to lift his Excommunication in an imaginary decor of colonnades, In the background, the castle of Mathilde of Tuscany in Canossa. As soon as he was pardoned, the emperor regained his ascendancy over Gregory VII and had a new pope appointed to his devotion. Bismarck's famous statement in 1872 "We will not go to Canossa" refers to a refusal of the Vatican's injunctions regarding the appointment of an Ambassador. Provenance Vente Coll Flensburg, Rasmussen CPH.

Dealer

Galerie Golovanoff

Russian and North European Neo classissime

Mobile : 0609945912

Galerie strictement virtuelle

Paris 75007