Description

Charles X sideboard with four doors and two drawers, in Mahogany wood, made in France in the first half of the 1800s
The cabinet has a beautiful shade of reddish mahogany and a small half-round frame in light wood, which runs on three sides under the drawers.
The same is then repeated double at the bottom above the feet and the lower frame.
The contained depth is compensated by the important height, making it easy to place in not very large rooms and at the same time very capacious.
The double curve of the lower cornice is the same as the strip of drawers under the top, symmetry that makes the furniture elegant and
