Description

This large venitian table made at the end of the 19th century, presents an exceptional work of wood carving. The curved and counter-curved lines as well as the ornamentation of flowers and foliage are inspired by the Rocaille style specific to the reign of Louis XV. The top, in tan leather, is in good condition. The gilding and the lacquer, being original, have some lacks and restorations. Delivery possible, in France and abroad, please contact us.
