Description

In chased and gilded bronze. Very rich ornamentation, of the exacerbated rococo type, finely chiseled with motifs of volutes, counter-volutes, staples, cartouches, shells, they rest on a base, with grooves in an eventful scalloped shape. In the Louis XV style, the candlesticks are a production of the 19th century, when the decorators, tired of pastiche, decided to reissue perfect reproductions of the 18th century models. To complete a decor in the purest Louis XV style. In keeping with furniture of this style dating from the 18th century. Period gilding. A mark under the base. One of the original candlesticks leans very slightly. 1580g / 1355g.
