Description

ART DECO sculpture "Attentive Doe", signed Jean L. Vuilleumier Old proof in bronze with a highly nuanced brown patina representing a doe on the lookout on an original mahogany wood base. Expressive and attentive, this pretty candid doe seems almost alive and does not look a hundred years old! The Swiss sculptor Jean-Louis Vuilleumier captured the rounded features of the animal. A delicate bronze sculpture, worthy of the greatest animal sculptors of the art deco period. Around 1930 Signed on the embankment "Jean L. Vuilleumier", with the stamp of the founder "Meroni-Radicé-Cire perdu-Paris"

Dimensions:
-Height without the base: 26.5 cm
