Description

Refined Louis XV Venetian style chest of drawers in walnut briar with oak interior dating from the beginning of the 20th century. Moved both on the front and on the sides, it is a true masterpiece of high cabinetmaking. Entirely veneered with burr walnut, it is embellished with finely carved wooden ornaments. The front is characterized by three large drawers that can be pulled out by gilded bronze handles. The cabriolet legs are joined by a finely sculpted mixtilinear apron with a central shell.
