Figureal Elements: Each candelabra incorporates figureal elements, likely representing mythological figures or allegorical representations. These sculptural accents add a touch of drama and sophistication to the overall design.

Drapery Motif: A prominent feature is the inclusion of draped garlands, adding a sense of movement and dynamism to the composition.

Three-Light Configuration: Each candelabra features three elegantly curved branches, providing ample illumination.

Artistry and Provenance:

These candelabras are attributed to the renowned French bronzier Ferdinand Barbedienne, who was famous for his high-quality reproductions of antique sculptures and his innovative techniques for bronzing. His work was highly sought after during the 19th century and continues to be admired for its artistry and craftsmanship.

Overall Impression:

This pair of candelabras is a captivating set that would make a stunning addition to any grand salon or library. They represent a sophisticated blend of artistry and craftsmanship, reflecting the opulence and refinement of 19th-century decorative arts.
