Description

David Murginski is an Israeli painter 1905/1975 oil on canvas portrait of a woman signed lower right and indicate paris I have another work by this painter for sale on my gallery David Murginski was an exceptional man. Although his better-known brother, Israeli artist Mordechai Arieli, was highly acclaimed, David was a true hero. He was part of the French Resistance during World War II. He used his art to aid the resistance by making counterfeit money, food stamps, and various identifications. The Germans were looking for him, but never did. They however captured his wife and eventually killed her. He lived in France and Israel. delivery 30 euros
