

Fanny Romanini (1777-1839) "young Woman In A Red Cap", Miniature On Ivory

3 800 EUR

Signature : Fanny Romanini

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Diameter : 14,5

Description

This large and perfect miniature portrait of a lady in a red cap, mounted in a beautiful original frame, comes from the famous collection of miniatures of Sigmund Mandl and it was illustrated in the important monograph by E.Lemberger (in German) "Meisterminiaturen aus 5 Jahrhunderts", Stuttgart, 1911 . The miniature was executed by Fanny Romanini, an Italian miniaturist, listed in various lexicons, worked with her husband Antonio R. in Milan between 1822 and 1839. His miniatures are extremely rare on the art market.

Literature: Thieme/Becker "Allgemeines Kuenstlerlexikon", Leipzig, 1999; E.Lemberger "Meisterminiaturen aus 5 Jahrhunderten", Stuttgart, 1911. Inscription: signed lower right.

Dealer

Alte Kunst

Fine Arts 17th - early 20th centuries

Tel : 004315137918

Mobile : 00436642605164

Fax : 004315137918

Spiegelgasse 21

Vienna 1010

Technique: gouache on ivory. back of frame with mother-of-pearl memory symbol. Luxurious vintage frame engraved and hand painted.

Dimensions: diameter of the image 8.5 cm; framed diameter 14.5 cm.

Condition: the miniature is in very good condition, no cracks, splits or paint losses, the condition of the frame is overall good, there is a crack in the upper middle