Description
-------------

"Large Art-Deco desk" This imposing desk (77 X 151 X 90 cm!) is very practical, I know something about it since it was in our house! Madame has redesigned the space and therefore... Admittedly, the more space you have, the more you tend to put things on it, quickly turning this large surface of the set into a real shambles, but at least, when I was doing the accounting for the months, I managed to find all my papers... With an almost Jansenist rigor, its somewhat masculine sobriety does not exclude a certain elegance. Oak and oak veneer, ignore the lighter spots: I photographed it in the garden under the cherry tree and the sun was peeking through the foliage. Other photos and many other objects in our shops in Pau and Biarritz and on our website:
