

Cope / Pluvial Silk Embroidery, Late Nineteenth Century

265 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Linen

Length : 270 cm

Height : 135 cm

Description

Liturgical screed / raincoat in cream silk damask fabric with red and gold fringed hood decorated with a flowered cross in purple velvet and the orfres richly embroidered with pattée crosses, ornamentation of foliage friezes and red and red embroidery band gold. Lining is red buckram and hooked tabs. Dimensions: Hood 48 cm x 50 cm. Screed 135 cm high by 270 cm wide. Good condition / traces of use and stains, traces of sewing.

Dealer

Lucas L&E

Argenterie ancienne, Arts liturgiques, Arts Russes, Arts de la tables

Mobile : 0615687757

Maisons-Laffitte 78600